HOPE TO SPEED UP LEGISLATION AT WASHINGTON

Recess Promised if Expectations of Administration are Fulfilled.

BILLS PENDING

Action On Revenue Laws And New Tariff Are Delayed.

Washington, August 11.—Republican leaders in Congress oiled the wheels of legislative machinery today and dangled the hope of a thirty-day recess before the eyes of the law-makers with the promise that they could have it if certain expectations of the administration are fulfilled during the coming week.

Differences of opinion exist between Senate and House leaders as to the probable date for the beginning of the proposed summer vacation. Senate chieftains insist that the measures upon which action is demanded by President Harding before a recess can be taken may be disposed of by August 20, while House leaders declare that it is likely to take longer.

It may require "steam roller" methods to carry out the will of the Republicans who believe it is possible to meet the desires of the administration during the coming week and their efforts will undoubtedly result, according to the expression of one leader in "finding a way for the majority to legislate."

Despite the fact that the present extraordinary session of Congress was called for the express purpose of revising the revenue laws and enacting a new tariff law, neither of the pending bills has reached the stage where it can be acted upon finally, so the administration had turned its attention to other measures, designed to restore normal conditions.

The program which the President has communicated to Congress includes the passage of the taxation bill by the House and its reference to the Senate Finance Committee. The passage by the house of the administration bill to authorize the War Finance Corporation to make advances for the exportation of agricultural products, final action on the bill to provide federal regulation of grain exchanges and passage of the resolution extending the emergency tariff bill for two months.

The revenue bill is expected to go to the public printer Friday or Saturday of this week. If this schedule is adhered to it can be formally introduced in the House on Monday and referred to a Republican caucus on the evening of the same day. Every effort will be made by the Ways and Means Committee and the Republican leaders to jam this bill through before the end of the next week, but the Senate Finance Committee may not be able to get it until a week later or on August 27. Closure will be probably invoked to expedite the taxation bill in the House but it is unlikely that a "gag rule" will be adopted. Passage of the other measures on the President's program may not be effected as easily as is hoped for. Some members of the house point out that they have been marking time for two weeks waiting for the Senate to send over the measures upon which quick action is wanted. The opinion is expressed in some quarters that the House is in "bad humor" and that speedy and affirmative action on pending bills at this time might not be possible in the circumstances.

The House has been operating recently with little more than a quorum present. The other members have gone back home to canvass local sentiment on important measures, including taxation and tariff, but a call has gone out to them to get back on the job in time for the Republican revenue caucus Monday night.

Some new views on the subject of a recess are likely to be presented to the House leaders, when the "sky-larking congressmen" come trooping with their various tales.

MARION COUNTY FAIR POSTPONED

Marion, Ohio, August 11.—Unless the state board of health rescinds its order the Marion county fair must either be postponed or not held at all, county commissioners say. State authorities hold the fair-ground is not in a sanitary condition and have ordered certain improvements. The commissioners advertised thirty days for this week, then when bids were submitted rejected them because they were all too high. It will take another 30 days to re-advertise and county commissioners declare that it will be a physical impossibility to award the contract for the work and complete it in time for the fair which is scheduled for September 20, 21, 22 and 23.

SEEK SOLUTION OF WESTERN TRAGEDY

Mrs. Madalynne Oberchain, a pretty divorcee, of Chicago, and Arthur C. Burch, son of an Evanston, Ill., minister are being held pending the outcome of the mysterious murder of J. Beidon Kennedy, wealthy Los Angeles broker who was shot from ambush when he was about to enter his home. According to the police, Mrs. Oberchain was walking with Kennedy at the time he was shot. Burch, who had been in Los Angeles, was arrested in Nevada while on his way to his home. He was taken back to Los Angeles. Ralph B. Oberchain, prominent Chicago lawyer, says he is ready to forgive his former wife and will stand by her. Mr. Oberchain is alleged to have told police that it was his wife's love for Kennedy that broke up their home.

Governor Small Goes Into "Seclusion" at His Home

Meanest Man Cuts Off Cow's Tail

Huntington, W. Va., August 11.—The meanest man living is being sought by the police. A. J. Burchett, reported to the police yesterday that some one, supposedly a bitter enemy, had entered his feed lot during the night and cut off his cow's tail.

The night before, Burchett stated, the cow's halter had been removed and the animal had been trussed up in baling wire.

PEACE IN ASIA MINOR IS NOT NOW IN SIGHT

Allies Will Allow Greeks and Turks to Decide Their Fate.

The allies have decided to allow the Greeks and Turks to fight it out without outside intervention. If the Greeks fail to route the forces under Mustafa Kemal Pasha they must submit to a long drawn-out guerilla warfare, with the Turks harassing their long lines of communication for months to come. The Turks have already suffered a series of reverses and are giving up their capital—Angora—but the main body of the Kemal army is still virtually intact.

Even if the Greeks decisively whip the Turkish Nationalists it is the opinion of competent military authorities that fighting will again break out later on.

The elusive Enver Pasha, young Turk leader and implacable foe of the allies is still at large. Enver Pasha, who led the Turks into the world war on the side of Germany, was in Moscow at last reports, waiting for a chance to re-organize the Asia Minor Turks with Russian bolshevik support and make another attempt to drive the Greeks out of Asia Minor.

Will Spend Part of $50,000 "Liberty" Outside Of Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 11.—Governor Len Small of Illinois, was to spend part of his $50,000 "liberty" outside of Springfield late today.

The Governor's plan, called for his departure from the capital late this afternoon. He intended to go "into seclusion" at his home at Kankakee, including the possible postponement of all immediate engagements.

His battery of attorneys headed now by Corporation Counsel Samuel A. Ettelson, of Chicago, meanwhile laid plans for the next legal clash with Sangamon county officers—a habeas corpus proceedings. The legal aspect of it developed into a battle with the officials.

The Governor in a bitterly caustic statement late yesterday blamed his predicament on the Sangamon county "vice ring" and openly threatened retaliatory prosecutions. His statement was interpreted today to indicate his legal advisers intended to investigate state war contracts. This reference was closely associated with his naming of a "war board" early in the week to probe the Adjutant General's department.

Sheriff Henry Mester today counter-attacked the Governor for his statement. The sheriff took exception to the Governor's charge that his deputies were "picked from the slums of Springfield."

"I deeply regret the Governor was so poorly advised of my visit to the state house," said the sheriff. "I took along a few of my regular deputies because the Governor had declared he would not submit to arrest. I was prepared to arrest him by force."

The sheriff also denied that the Governor was jeered while in the former's office. He declared it was the Governor's own friends who thronged the corridors of the state house and court house before and after the arrest.

Welts Cover Body of Child Brutally Slain, Foster Mother Held By Police

Akron Lad Aged 5 Victim of Vicious Beating Late Wednesday.

Akron, Ohio, August 11.—On a marble slab in the county morgue today lies the still body of Ralph Lowe, aged 5. Coroner Kent, who held an inquiry, declares there are two hundred or more welts on the little boy, also that the neck is broken.

In the detention ward of the county jail is held Mrs. Hilda Stewart Lowe, 34, foster mother of the boy. She was apprehended late yesterday after complaint was made that she had

FORMAL INVITATIONS TO GREAT POWERS TO ATTE NO DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE WILL BE SENT SOON

Meeting to Assemble Three Months From Thursday—
Personnel Of American Commission Presents
Difficult Problem To Solve.

Washington, August 11.—Formal messages to Great Britain, Japan, France and Italy, inviting them to assemble around the conference table in Washington three months from today to discuss limitation of armament and settlement of far-eastern problems probably will go forward by the end of this week. The invitations already have been drafted, it is understood. They already have been the subject of

NAVAL BUREAU CHIEFS SLASH EXPENDITURES

Immediate Results Shown
In Reduction of Air
Stations.

Washington, August 11.—In an effort to meet the demands of the new budget operated by Charles C. Dawes, navy bureau chiefs are engaged today in slashing expenditures and estimates.

Chiefs of bureaus are meeting daily to thresh out the problems of curtailed running expenses and to draw up estimates of their needs for presentation later, under the new budget requirements.

The results have been reflected so far in the reduction of naval air stations, three having been closed to date, with a saving of $204,000, and there is a move under way now to reduce very considerably the remaining number of stations. It is expected that the saving next year from this course will approximate $400,200. A full report on the aviation policy to be followed under the new bureau of aeronautics is to be made today. This report will disclose the number of stations to be maintained, the department of the personnel of those discarded and the location of the others.

One of the largest tasks, thus far undertaken has been the co-ordination of the war and navy supply systems, as recommended in the budget report. The work is well advanced, it is stated, and an announcement of the full plea is expected to be made shortly. Heads of both departments have been engaged for weeks in almost daily conference over this part of the budget program so that even though the two departments may not be merged into one, as has been suggested, one phase of its activities will have been "budgetized."

P. R. R. IS GRANTED 15 DAYS OF GRACE TO HOLD MEETING

Believe Strike Averted By Action of Road for Extension.

Chicago, August 11.—The Pennsylvania Railway at its own request, today has been granted 15 days of grace in which to comply with the recent order of the United States Railway Labor Board to hold a conference with its employees to arrange for the election of a committee to draw up new working agreements.

Samuel Rea, president of the road, wired the Labor Board asking for an extension of time and the board granted the request. A strike of the 35,000 shop craft employees of the road, it is believed, have been averted temporarily at least, by the road's action.

Hearings were resumed by the Labor Board today on the protests filed by employees of more than seventy roads against the application of the road for the restoration of the piece-work system in railway shops.

several conferences between Secretary of State Hughes and President Harding. It is likely that their actual transmission will be delayed until after tomorrow's cabinet meeting in order that the President's advisers may put final O. K. on them.

With the first formal steps toward the conference all but completed, the attention of President Harding and his advisers here is turning to the personnel of the American commission where a real problem is presented.

President Harding's own suggestion that the participating nations limit their delegations to five or six persons already has provided the tongues of Washington with a basis of speculation concerning the system to be followed in selecting America's representatives. It is considered certain here that President Harding himself will take on active part in the deliberations and Secretary Hughes will act as chairman of and principal spokesman for the American delegation.

A representative of Congress, probably a Senator.
A representative of the army.
A representative of the navy.
A prominent Democrat.
A prominent Republican.
Perhaps a woman.

It has been suggested that in view of the fact that the experts and heads of the army and navy will be on the round here it will be unnecessary to include their representative in the commission itself, or that the army and navy representation be centered in one man such as General Pershing. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge is considered a likely choice to represent the Congress, due principally to his position as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and his admitted knowledge of international affairs.

There is more speculation over the identity of the Democrat than of any other personage, and strange as it may seem, the name of William Jennings Bryan is mentioned with frequency. The Commoner has a host of friends in Congress and some of these declare he is the most logical choice. He is a former secretary of state, a life-long advocate of disarmament and certainly a prominent Democrat, they say.

The name of Elihu Root also is being heard with increasing frequency as a member of the American commission. His friends insist that he is perhaps the best qualified man in the country, to sit at a conference of this character, due to his long experience in diplomatic affairs and his admitted great legal ability. Root also is considered to have as wide a knowledge of the Japanese question as any man in the United States, which is regarded as a highly desirable asset in view of the fact that the whole conference is going to hinge around Japanese matters.

LYDD GEORGE AND BRIAND DISAGREE ON NEW PROBLEM

President Millerand Takes
Hand in Upper Silesian Question.

Paris, August 11.—President Millerand, of France, intervened in the Upper Silesian conversations between Premier Lloyd George and Premier Briand today to prevent another serious divergence of views.

The new dead-lock between the British and French Premiers developed over-night and came to a head at a breakfast this morning attended by Lloyd George, M. Briand and M. Loucheur, Minister for liberated regions in the French cabinet.

Premier Lloyd George was said to have insisted that the British and Italians prevail while M. Briand said he would refuse to make any further concessions.

The Premiers met again at lunch on at the summer home of President Millerand at Rambouillet. Before the luncheon began the French President conferred privately with Premier Lloyd George and Premier Briand urging the importance of an amicable settlement.

UPPER SILESIAN QUESTION TO BE DECIDED LATER

Supreme Council Delays
Final Action—War Trials
Are Discussed.

Paris, Aug. 11.—The Upper Silesian question will not be definitely settled at the present session of the supreme council but will be left open for future meeting to be held in Boulogne or London, according to the usually well informed Journal.

It is probable that final ratification of the new Silesian frontiers will be postponed until the next meeting of the council to allow the allied high commissioners to return to Upper Silesia to take necessary steps to prevent trouble when the partition is put into effect.

The allied statesmen expect to discuss the Upper Silesian question again this evening.

On Friday the council will take up the German war trials in the supreme court at Leipzig. The French are incensed at the lightness of the sentences imposed upon the convicted German officers and have withdrawn their commissioner from Leipzig in consequence. This action was taken independently without consulting the British.

The council unexpectedly took up the Russian famine situation and reported upon the best methods of giving quick relief to the starving masses in the interior of Russia.

HITCH OCCURS IN FREEING OF U. S. CITIZENS IN RUSSIA

Negotiations Between Brown and Soviet Postponed

Riga, August 11.—A hitch has occurred in the liberation of American citizens by Russia and the negotiations between Walter L. Brown, European Director of American Relief, and Boris Litvinoff, of the Soviet government, have been postponed until the remaining 21 Americans, still detained in Russia, are set free.

The six Americans who crossed into Estonia from Russia on Wednesday morning were still at Riga at last reports.

Director Brown and Litvinoff were introduced to one another by the Lithuanian Foreign Minister. Preliminary negotiations were begun on Wednesday but when the American relief worker found that there were still a score of American citizens in Russia he said that there would be no further negotiations regarding Russian relief until these Americans were out.

BOULEVARD PLAN DEFEATED

Cincinnati, Aug. 10.—The proposed $4,250,000 canal boulevard was defeated 2 to 1 in yesterday's primaries. For Mayor John Galvin, Republican incumbent, was chosen to succeed himself and Dr. Charles L. Bonifield was selected by the Democrats.

REAL DRIVE IS STARTED TO AID DISABLED VETS

Red Tape Scrapped In Attempt To Obtain Full Justice

WORK CO-ORDINATED

Will Start Rigid Inspection Of Existing Hospitals In Country.

Washington, August 11.—Bureaucratic red tape was scrapped today in a real drive to accord disabled former service men the fullest measure of aid and justice that the law intended they should have.

Colonel Charles R. Forbes, director of the veteran's bureau, 24 hours after taking the oath of office, began co-ordinating the work of all the governmental agencies now consolidated by the Sweet bill. He warned division chiefs against delays in acting upon claims for compensation and insurance. He directed that henceforth the policy of every official dealing with former service men's claims, must be to give decisions in favor of claimants wherever there is a doubt.

In carrying forward the government's hospitalization program under which $18,600,000 will be spent to provide for soldier patients, Colonel Forbes at once will inaugurate a rigid system of inspection of existing hospitals. By January 1, Colonel Forbes expects that 6,800 more beds will be available in hospitals. There are now 26,630 patients in 800 private and ninety government hospitals. The number is increasing at the rate of 1,000 a month. A feature of Colonel Forbes' plan commended by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, is to expand permanent soldiers' homes into hospitals for disabled former service men with the idea of re-converting such hospitals later on into homes for veterans after the need for hospitalization has passed.

This plan Colonel Forbes believes will operate for economy and he anticipates a great need for such homes in coming years. He cited the fact that within five or ten years after the civil war, the housing of veterans became a serious problem and inadequate provision was made for the crippled veterans in their declining years.

Colonel Forbes today instructed his subordinates in the veterans' bureau that the re-organized bureau must make it their business to go out and hunt for disabled former service men and let them know their rights.

OVER 600 FARMERS OF MICHIGAN WILL VISIT OHIO FARMS

Trip To Be Made In Automobiles—Will Camp Out.

Akron, Ohio, August 11.—More than 600 farmers from the state of Michigan have heralded the fact they will be in Akron Friday to make a tour of the rubber plants. Chamber of Commerce is arranging to entertain them. The farmers are making the trip in up-to-date motor vehicles. They carry their own tents and camping outfits, and, when occasion arises, stop in a vacant lot of an Ohio farmer and camp for the night.

Michigan, farmer's auto tour association is back of the move and plan to scrape an intimate acquaintance with the Ohio ruralites with the object of bettering farming conditions.

"You see we have heard of the up-to-day farmer in the Buckeye state," said one farmer, "and now we're going to see for ourselves."

Here are the objects of the trip: 1.—To have a good time. 2.—To take notes on Ohio farms and their best methods.

3.—To have the city dwellers regard the farmers in the new light.

The caravan expects to visit farmers in West Virginia and Pennsylvania on the tour.

SHOT TO DEATH BY TWO BANDITS

New York, Aug. 11.—Shot to death by two men who calmly sought him out in a crowded restaurant in Christie Street, Joseph Passantino died early today, eighth victim of what the police believe to be a boot-leggers' feud in New York's underworld. The cafe in which Passantino met his death was crowded at the time of the shooting. No one, according to the dead man's partner who sat with him and whom the murderers carefully avoided in their fire, made the least attempt to stop the shooting or detain the gunmen.

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS OF WATER SUPPLY OF XENIA MADE

Chemical analysis of the water from the wells now furnishing the water supply of Xenia, as made by the laboratory of the State department of Health has been received by Health Commissioner R. H. Grube. It is as follows:

Total hardness.....	266.00
Incrustants.....	0.
Total Iron.....	2.5
Chlorine.....	7.
Total Solids.....	340.

Explaining these figures Dr. Grube said:

"These figures represent parts per million. Total hardness is expressed nearly by the sum of parts per million of carbonate of lime and magnesia. The absence of incrustants means the absence of the insoluble sulphates of lime and magnesia which form scale in boilers, teakettles, etc., and deposits on glassware and bathroom fixtures and which cannot be removed except with acids which also remove enamel.

"The iron content is very high and would stain fixtures and clothing were it not removed as is done by a simple process of aeration and filtration at the new water works. No chemical or other substance is used in this process. The chlorine in the form of sodium chloride exists in all ground water in Greene County but this proportion, 7 parts per million is unusually low.

Bacterial analysis of the city water made recently at the laboratory of the State department of health showed the water to be entirely free from harmful bacteria." Dr. Grube said.

ENGINE PLOWS INTO TRUCK, KILLING TWO IN WESTERVILLE

Westerville, August 10.—Two men were killed and a C. & C. passenger locomotive disabled in a crash with a motor truck at the College Avenue crossing here yesterday.

George Rankey, 35, and his brother Carl, 29, grain dealers and transfer handlers, met death when the big engine plowed into their machine. They had been hauling paper for the American Issue Publishing Co., and were returning to a car on a siding from the plant when the accident happened. Parts of the demolished auto were strewn for rods along the rails and yard engines towed the train into Columbus.

The elder Rankey was killed outright. The brother, whose skull was fractured, was breathing and was hurried to Grant Hospital where he died shortly after without regaining consciousness. The bodies were taken to the G. W. Stockdale morgue, Westerville, and today will be removed to the home of the men's father, Charles F. Rankey, West Home Street.

George, unmarried, was a member of the Ohio National Guard Ambulance Co., now at Camp Perry. Carl, who leaves a widow, besides his parents and three sisters, was a veteran of the world war. Officials of Young Budd Post of the American Legion at Westerville last night announced they probably would arrange military funeral services for both victims. The father is a real estate dealer, with offices in the Arcade Building.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY RESULTS IN GIRL'S AFFAIR OF HEART

Monticello, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Who "done wrong" to pretty, blue-eyed, trusting Mary Holdowatetz?

"Not I," said Jack Brown, a farm-hand, here today. Mary caused a country-wide sensation yesterday when she sprang a regular "mademoiselle de Maupin" story of how a girl named Carolyn Schimek had deceived her into believing her a man—her man, at that, and made love to her for two years with promises of marriage.

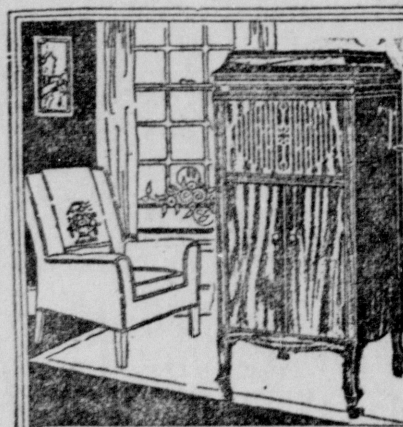

"Jack Brown" was the pseudonym of the young lover, Mary says, and she found out to her sorrow that "Jack" had been spoofing her. But when reporters found "Jack Brown" working as a farm-hand on the Kutchner farm here today, he insisted he was just plain Jack Brown, without any quotation marks and that he had made love to Mary as any gentleman would have done, but nothing was done.

Jack had been working on the farm and living in a room with four other farm hands and to all appearance is not what he says he is. He hasn't much beard, but during his courtship of Mary, the latter says he told her he used a preparation to take off the hair so that he need not shave.

"I'm from Tillery, N. C.," said Jack today. "I came north three years ago. I admit I asked Mary to marry me but nothing came of it. I don't know why she should not to sue me.

"My name is just Brown and I never heard of the name of Carolyn Schimek before."

HUNT MEMBERS OF BANDIT GANG WHO WIELDED GUNS

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 11.—Police and Sheriff's deputies of half a dozen Mississippi, Arkansas and Tennessee Counties were searching last night for members of a bandit band whose unsuccessful attempt to rob an employe of the Ford Motor Company of payroll funds, amounting to $8,500, resulted in the death of three policemen and the wounding of five other men.

Several men were brought to police headquarters last night for questioning, but police declined to say whether any definite information has been obtained.

The hold-up took place at the entrance to the assembling plant of the company, on Union avenue, in a busy industrial section, shortly before noon yesterday. Those killed were Vincent Lucarni, a police Lieutenant; Howard L. Gamble, an employe of the Ford Company, deputized as a special officer and Policeman A. Carraway, a patrolman.

Carraway and Gamble, who were guarding Edward McHenry, the clerk in charge of the money while returning in an automobile from a bank, were shot to death when four masked men drove alongside, demanded the money and then opened fire with pistols and shotguns. McHenry leaped from the automobile and stumbled but escaped the volley.

Lieutenant Lucarni was wounded fatally when a posse at Collieryville, a suburb, fired on a police car mistaking it for the automobile in which the bandits were reported to be enroute to that town.

An Easy Way For Thin People to Put On Flesh and Gain Weight

Strong, Straightforward Advice to Thin, Underdeveloped Men and Women.

If you are thin, scrawny and undeveloped, if your face is peaked and your cheeks and neck exhibit unsightly hollows, it's almost certain that your nervous system is at the bottom of the trouble. You can eat three, yes four, substantial, fat producing meals a day, but as long as your stomach has an insufficient supply of nerve force this food you eat will pass out of the body with little if any benefit.

In order to assimilate properly the nourishing food you eat and convert it into healthy tissue and fat the nerves that control the process of digestion and assimilation must be put in first-class shape and until that is done you might just as well quit trying to put on flesh. Your system is starving for something that will turn the food you eat into healthy stay-there flesh and it can only be done in one way—by correcting faulty nervous digestion.

Thin, nervous, run-down people however, with impoverished blood and half-starved looks are hailing with delight a quick and certain maker of solid flesh called EVANS' TRIPLE PHOSPHATES that is unequalled for repairing faulty digestion and correcting nervous digestive troubles. In fact the makers of Evans' Triple Phosphates guarantee that one month's treatment will increase your weight by several pounds and within ten days make you feel like a new being, full of ambition, vigor and a desire to accomplish things. Sohn's Drug Store, Sayre & Hemphill, and leading druggists everywhere have agreed to supply Evans' Triple Phosphates and guarantee it to do just what is claimed for it or money refunded.

Caption: Write Evans' Triple Phosphates accomplishes wonders in nervous digestive troubles and as a general nerve-tonic. It should not be taken by anyone who objects to a few additional pounds of solid stay-there flesh.

Too Fat?
Over 45 pounds loss of burdensome fat is reported by Andrew R. Chaney, who used KOSIN Tablets and dietetics. The average was a pound daily. Another message comes from Mrs. E. L. ## THE TRIALS OF A HOUSEWIFE

How They Have Been Endured and How Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Experience of a Providence Woman

Providence, R. I.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a female trouble and backache. It began just after my baby was born, and I did the best I could about getting my work done, but I had awful bearing-down pains so I could not stand on my feet. I read in the papers about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the good it was doing other women, and I have got dandy results from it and will always recommend it. You can use these facts as a testimonial if you wish."—Mrs. HERBERT L. CASSEN, 18 Meni Court, Providence, R. I.

Ohio woman for three years could hardly keep about and do her housework she was so ill. Made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound:

Fayette, O.—"For about three years I was very nervous and had backache, sideache, dragging-down pains, could not sleep at night, and had no appetite. At times I could hardly do my housework. I got medicine from the doctor but it did not help me. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in a newspaper and took it with good results, and am now able to do my housework. I recommend your medicine to my friends and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. CHESTER A. BALL, R. 15, Fayette, Ohio.

An Illinois woman relates her experience: Bloomington, Ill.—"I was never very strong and female trouble kept me so weak I had no interest in my housework. I had such a backache I could not cook a meal or sweep a room without raging with pain. Rubbing my back with alcohol sometimes eased the pain for a few hours, but did not stop it. I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and six bottles of it have made me as strong and healthy as any woman; and I give my thanks to it for my health."—Mrs. J. A. McQUITT, 610 W. Walnut St., Bloomington, Ill.

The conditions described by Mrs. Cassen, Mrs. Ball, and Mrs. McQuitty will appeal to many women who struggle on with their daily tasks in just such conditions—in fact, it is said that the tragedy in the lives of some women is almost beyond belief. Day in and day out they slave their homes and their families—and beside the daily routine of housework, often make clothes for themselves and for their children, or work in their gardens, all the while suffering from those awful bearing-down pains, backache, headaches, nervousness, the blues, and troubles which sap the very foundation of life until there comes a time when nature gives out and an operation seems inevitable. If such women would only profit by the experience of these three women, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the natural restorative for such conditions it may save them years of suffering and unhappiness.

There is hardly a neighborhood in any town or hamlet in the United States wherein some woman does not reside who has been restored to health by this famous medicine. Therefore ask your neighbor, and you will find in a great many cases that at some time or other she, too, has been benefited by taking it, and will recommend it to you. For more than forty years this old-fashioned root and herb medicine has been restoring suffering women to health and strength.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts.

PRETTY WEDDING SOLEMNIZED, WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Donges on South Detroit Street, was the scene of a pretty ceremony, Wednesday afternoon, at four o'clock when their youngest daughter, Miss Marie M. Donges, became the bride of Mr. Robert Collins, son of Mrs. Mary L. Collins of this city.

Roses and golden glow used in handsome baskets at the Donges home, formed attractive decorations. In the parlor, where the ceremony took place, golden glow was used alone, and was combined with smilax and other foliage in forming an altar, under which the vows were taken.

Rev. Charles P. Proudfit, of the Second United Presbyterian Church the bride's pastor, officiated at the service. Miss Donges wore for her marriage her traveling suit of dark blue tulle, with a becoming hat of the same shade. Her flowers were a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony a light refreshment course was served the guests, who included only members of the two immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins left, Wednesday afternoon, by motor for their wedding trip. Upon their return they will go to housekeeping in an apartment ready for their occupancy, at the home of Mr. Collins's mother at 260 North Detroit Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins are both popular young people in a large circle of friends in this city. Mrs. Collins was formerly a student at Antioch College, at Yellow Springs. Mr. Collins attended Muskingum College, before entering the service during the World War, serving two years overseas. Mr. Collins is now a member of the firm of the Xenia Auto Necessity Company, on South Detroit Street.

MISS HORNICK IS HONORED WITH LOVELY AFFAIR

Honoring her niece, Miss Agnes Hornick, whose marriage to Mr. Newton Shough of South Charleston will be an event of September, Mrs. James Graham was a charming hostess on Wednesday afternoon at her home at 216 West Main Street, at a miscellaneous shower.

The afternoon's guests numbered sixteen of Miss Hornick's close friends, and as honor guest she received many lovely gifts. Lovely wicker baskets of pink sweet Williams were used throughout the rooms of the Graham home. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations and refreshments.

A three course luncheon was served later in the afternoon. The guests were seated at one large table, which was attractively laid. In the center a crystal vase held fragrant pink roses, and at each end crystal baskets were filled with the same flower. Between the end bouquets and the centerpiece, candelabra were placed, tied with huge pink tulle bows.

Following the luncheon the guests enjoyed a delightful musical program until the close of the afternoon. Out of town guests for the affair were Mrs. C. N. Shough, and Miss Marie Shough, of South Charleston.

The affair is the first of many pre-nuptial parties that are being planned in Miss Hornick's honor.

RHYMING INVITATIONS SUMMON GUESTS TO REUNION

A bit of original rhyme is the original idea used by promoters of the Glass family reunion in sending out invitations to the affair to be held at Ross township high school, August 25.

The invitations read as follows: "The time for our reunion is surely drawing nigh, And the Glass' have decided to meet at Ross Township High; So gather up your family and a well-filled basket too, And on the twenty fifth of August we'll see what we can do. We're going to have lots of music And a splendid program besides; So no matter what comes, either sunshine or rain We will surely good shelter provide."

The invitation in verse is signed by Dorothy Glass Stiner, Secretary.

FIRE CAPTAIN STOPS RUNAWAY TEAM ON EAST MAIN STREET

Fire Captain Charles Mahanna may not act like a hero is supposed to act in novels, but there is room on his coat lapel for a hero medal just the same, according to citizens who saw him halt a runaway team of horses on East Main, Tuesday.

The team, hitched to a wagon, started on a wild dash East on Main Street, while Captain Mahanna was sitting in front of the fire engine house. A small colored lad on the seat of the wagon was not big enough to control the horses and too frightened to attempt to stop the team.

The fire captain dashed from his chair, and caught the rear end of the wagon as it passed. Climbing over the top of the wagon to the seat, he caught the lines and brought the frightened team to a halt a square father east on Main street. The colored boy was too agitated to tell his name, and Captain Mahanna turned the team over to the care of a by-stander until the arrival of the lad's father, who had left the rig standing in front of a store when the horses bolted.

INSTITUTE HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS FOR GIRL'S RELEASE

Time for the hearing of Albert Ward, arrested on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of Dorothy Perrin, a minor, has not yet been set by Juvenile Judge J. Carl Marshall.

Ward and the girl are still held in the County Jail pending the hearing of the case, despite efforts of Frank H. Dean, attorney for the girl, to obtain her release through habeas corpus proceedings instituted in Common Pleas Court, Wednesday.

In a hearing on the writ of habeas corpus, Thursday morning, before Judge R. L. Gowdy, of Common Pleas Court, Judge Gowdy ruled the case was without his jurisdiction, which leaves it for settlement in Juvenile Court. In his writ of habeas corpus, Attorney Dean charges the girl was being detained illegally and without commitment and that he, as her attorney, was denied the opportunity to consult with her and denied entrance to the jail.

COMMISSION WILL CONDUCT PROBE OF RATES ON FREIGHT

Columbus, August 11.—A probe of railroad freight rates on shipments of agriculture products, seeds, fertilizers, implements, and other commodities raised, or used, on farms will be made by the State Utilities Commission after the commission completes its inquiry into freight rates on road building materials, it is announced.

"High freight rates are a material factor in keeping up prices on practically all commodities," declared Governor Davis, who has asked State Director of Agriculture Tabor and officials of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation and of the Ohio Grange to select experts to submit the agriculture case to the Utilities Commission.

"The effects of high freight rates to the farmers is not only burdensome generally, but reflected directly in the cost of his produce to the consumer," continued the Governor.

"These rates are higher in Ohio than in some of the surrounding states, as appears to be the case, with respect to highway material, they constitute a heavy burden on the people and should be promptly reduced."

MAN ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Columbus, August 11.—Following receipt of a tip, police arrested Robert A. Boyd, 25, a painter, on suspicion of having murdered A. J. Thompson, aged attendant at an east-side gasoline filling station Friday night.

If Boyd is convicted his informant will receive over $1,000 of which $500 will come from the Standard Oil Company, the rest from the Columbus Automobile Club.

Boyd is under $15,000 bond on three charges of auto stealing, fled last spring. His home is at 588 East Rich Street, almost in the rear of the filling station.

Police stated Boyd may have been prompted to shoot Thompson because the latter recognized Boyd when the attempt was made to rob the station.

The affair, which was held in the David L. Ketter sugar grove, four and one-half miles south of Xenia, near White Chapel, was the largest even of its kind ever held in the county, and was reminiscent of the sportsmen's picnics of a number of years ago when lovers of hunting and fishing gathered together for a day.

An elaborate program which offered some form of contest for men, women and children occupied the entire afternoon, the program of events starting at one o'clock in the afternoon. The initial events included five trap shoots, in charge of County Game Protector Karl Keller, Harry Spahr, winning first prize in each event.

The Ladies' Surprise contest, billed as the novelty event of the afternoon was a feature of the program. The prizes were offered to the woman contestant who sat still the longest without speaking, laughing or moving. There were eighty contestants, who were allowed to assume whatever position they wished before the contest started. At the end of the three minutes, the first woman gave up, but after an hour, eleven women were still in the contest. Mrs. Wilbur Street won by remaining quiet the longest, her record being an hour and five minutes. Mrs. Karl Keller won second prize and Miss Elizabeth Ray, the third prize.

The prize offered for the largest family present went to the family of Henry Rector. Every contest, with the exception of the boys' rifle shot, which had to be called off because of darkness, was held and the picnickers put in a busy afternoon, until it was time to spread their lunches for the big picnic supper.

During the afternoon, Hal Matthews, well known fisherman and hunter of this city, who despite his age still loves the outdoor sport, was presented with a $12 sweater by H. E. Conklin, on behalf of the Association as being the oldest and truest sportsman in the county.

The committee in charge of the picnic consisted of M. C. Smith, chairman; Ed. S. Foust, Dr. George Davis, N. P. Ewbank, C. F. Taylor, Harry Schweibold and Karl Keller.

Dayton, O., Aug. 11.—Postal Inspector Harry F. Hoff came back to Dayton from Indianapolis today with a big bundle of letters, baseball and bank clearing pool tables and other documents he says will figure in federal prosecution of pool promoters which may extend nation wide. Already Dayton, Indianapolis and Cleveland are in it, with lines leading into a dozen other states.

A warrant for J. L. McDonald, Indianapolis printer, and for W. J. Mulholland, Cleveland, have been issued and placed in hands of officials at those cities. Trials will be in Dayton, where C. C. McNabb, arrested here Monday, is said to be a member of the promoters. Hoff says a letter from McDonald to Mulholland, asking the former to bail him out when arrested at Cleveland, says "raids are a good thing—they permit you to sow bird seed where it will serve in regard to influence." Authorities are trying to learn what this means. The Indianapolis man declares he simply printed the pools and sent them to Cleveland for assembly.

URGES CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY AS WAY TO SOLVE PROBLEM

John Royal Harris demonstrated himself a humorist of no mean ability, Wednesday night, at the Xenia Bible Conference. He was dealing with the rather delicate question of the races. Although a Southerner by birth and dialect, Harris handled his topic with rare tact and good humor.

One rather dramatic minute was when the speaker told of his nearness to a personal lynching. "The solution to the race question is in Christian sympathy and mutual growth in charitable understanding of each other," he said.

Thursday night Dr. Blackwood will again take up his series of vespers studies on "The Teachings of Jesus," at 7:30 p. m. The main address of the evening will be at 8:30 when Rev. W. ## SAYS 918 HOMES NEEDED IN GREENE COUNTY AT PRESENT

There are 918 new homes needed in Greene county. That is, 918 many new houses must be built, according to estimates just made by the United States Department of Commerce, if every family in Greene county is to be properly housed. At the present time one family in six in this county is without its own home. Building on the scale urged by the Department of Commerce would go a long way toward beating down high rents charged in many places.

The above figures have been given building and loan institutions, which according to Secretary of Commerce Hoover are the chief agencies for home building. To build the estimated number of homes needed in the entire county will take approximately $2,700,000. The assets of all the building and loan institutions in this county are $4,300,000 but nearly 100 per cent of these funds already are loaned on homes and these financial institutions at the present time are handicapped through insufficient funds in relieving the shortage of home building funds. "The home shortage can only be relieved by the placing of savings in institutions catering to home financing," according to James A. Devine, secretary of the Ohio Building Association League.

"Each community will benefit only in turn as it puts its savings into institutions that help to build towns," said Devine. Every rightful effort should be made at this time to increase construction work especially in buildings of residential type. Such activities not only will help alleviate the ills of inadequate housing but they will help general business by providing employment for men who are now idle and create business for many lines of industry."

MESSAGES RECEIVED.
Washington, August 11.—Personal messages were received today by the State Department from the six Americans who were released from prisons in Russia yesterday. ## GENERAL WOOD PLAYING PEACE-MAKER IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Mindanao Province, "the Ulster of the Philippines," is furnishing General Wood an opportunity to play the role of peace-maker between the Moros and the Filipinos. According to reports from the Wood-Forbes mission, which now is engaged in three weeks' investigation there General Wood has been emphasizing the fact that the Moros and the Filipinos are one race, with common ancestors, despite the fact that the Moros are Mohammedans and the Filipinos Christians.

The Mindanao Province problem admittedly is one of the chief stumbling blocks in the way of granting the Filipinos their independence. For many centuries the fierce Moro pirates raided the coasts of the Christian provinces and wreaked havoc on the feeble races in Luzon. Today along the island coasts are hundreds of watch towers erected many years ago to give warning of the approach of Moro invaders. Even Spain was unable to cope with the Moro power and never conquered Mindanao Province holding only a few small military settlements, which frequently were overwhelmed by the natives.

According to authorities like Dean C. Worcester, the Mohammedan races never will submit willingly to Christian Filipino rule. Ex-Governor Frank Carpenter, it is acknowledged, has done great work in reconciling the Moros to American rule. He was instrumental in persuading the Sultan of Sulu to relinquish his temporal power, though the Sultan retains his religious leadership of the Mohammedans in the Philippines and even in British North Borneo, adjoining.

Under the Harrison regime the Filipino was given an increasing share in the Mindanao administration and Christians were encouraged to settle there, but the sporadic outbreaks continue. A few days before the Wood-Forbes mission reached the Philippines ninety-three Moros were killed in a pitched battle with the native constabulary.

While certain Filipino politicians loudly assert that Christians could govern the Mohammedans successfully, those closest in touch with the situation are skeptical, some even saying that the Moros desire Philippine independence in order to sweep the Filipino "unbelievers" into the sea.

The first Moro delegation meeting with General Wood stated they were satisfied with the Filipino Governor in their province, but feared the public schools would alienate their children from Mohammedanism. General Wood assured the chiefs that neither the Filipino nor the American Government would interfere with Mohammedanism through the schools, and declared that religion must be left to the churches and the homes.

Education is reported to be progressing slowly, with a handful of American and Moro teachers and a much larger number of Filipino teachers. The English language is only nominally taught. It is believed the Wood-Forbes mission's report dealing with the Mohammedan provinces will be significant, as the Christians do not desire a separate Mindanao Province, which potentially is the richest area in the archipelago, although the religious problem and the old racial hatreds admittedly are a hard nut for them to crack. The race problem also is complicated by the presence of a large number of Japanese planters.

U. S. TOURISTS BEGIN TO RUSH HOMEWARD.

Although Americans began dribbling homeward a week ago, the real exodus of tourists will get into full swing this week. Some 12,000 are booked to sail on six boats leaving British ports within the next seven days. The United States Mail Line—the only line plying between American and British ports under the American flag—accounts for about 2500 with three ships, the America, August 11; the George Washington, August 15, and the new Centennial State, August 15. Of the Cunarders, the Aquitania and the Carmania will sail August 13. The White Star liner Baltic sails August 13.

A party of 100 American sailors from the battleship Utah, the flagship of Vice Admiral Niblack, arrived in London Saturday to take in the sights of the British capital. They are the first of 1000 who will be brought in similar parties before the battleship leaves English waters. "Rubberneck" motor buses were in waiting with guides to explain the landmarks. The sailors were first greeted at the Tower of London by a policeman, a "beef eater" member of the guard and his pet dog, who jointly removed all cameras and then escorted the party through. They carefully warned souvenir fiends that the crown jewels are not like German helmets and iron crosses and, consequently, must be left where they were. Great regret was expressed by some members of the party that they were unable to take home even the Kohinoor diamond. Later they took in the bridge, the houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey and St. Paul's. They are very favorably regarded by the fair sex, who have not forgotten the war days and bear in mind the fact that the dollar still is at a premium in buying British things.

JUST NEIGHBORS.

In an offhand, informal speech while motoring through Maine the President put very happily the feeling that should animate the coming Disarmament Conference at Washington. He said that he has asked the nations "to meet with us around the council table and look each other in the face just as neighbors should look each other in the face and ask each other why there should be war."

It is to be a meeting of those who come together, not in cut-throat cupidity, not in greedy and jealous passion, not with a thirst for vengeance to be slaked, but in a spirit of readiness to do away with the antagonisms that divide and distract the world. Nations, after all, are only great aggregations of human beings. They are moved by the instincts and the appetites that govern individuals. If a man has a dispute with his neighbor over the right to plow in a field or fish in a brook, he need not take the gun from the wall to settle it. There is such a thing as a friendly "confab" in the shade of the old apple tree or over coffee and cigars.

"We are going to have that kind of a conference," says the President. The people who cannot appreciate the homely and simple spirit of the invitation to the parley will do well to meditate upon the President's words.

ONLY ONE FIFTH OF BALLOTS CAST

Columbus, August 10.—Less than 19,000 voters, or about one fifth of the registered voters of Columbus, went to the primaries here yesterday, according to figures available today. By a vote of 10,072 to 8,595, the voters decided to have day-light saving time next summer. The Mary Ann system of electing municipal officials was upheld by a vote of 8,925 to 6,558.

Of seven proposed amendments to the city charter, six were defeated. The amendment providing that ordinances shall be published twenty days, instead of ten, after their passage carried. The proposal to increase councilmen's salaries was defeated by a vote of nearly 3 to 1. Successful candidates for council are: Fred P. Zimpher, Henry W. Worley, Reddie W. McDonald, John L. Davis and Dr. A. E. Griffin, Judge John F. Seidel and Erwin V. Mahaffey, Republicans; and Dean C. Throckmorton and Dana F. Reynolds, Democrats, were selected as nominees for municipal court judges.

WINS NOMINATION

Canton, Ohio, August 10.—C. C. Curtis, former secretary of ex-Congressman Roscoe McCulloch, won the Republican mayoralty nomination by 575 votes in a three-cornered fight with C. A. Stolberg, who served two terms as Mayor resigning the last month to enter the army in 1917, and A. P. Owen, former postoffice inspector, Herman R. Witter, present Democratic incumbent, was nominated without opposition. Curtis is president of the McKinley Club. Canton's old Republican organization formed during the McKinley campaign. Only about 5,000 of the 32,000 registered voters went to the polls, and of this number less than 300 were women.

LIEUT. GOV. BROWN SAVES GIRL'S LIFE

Old Orchard, Me., Aug. 11.—Lieutenant Governor Clarence J. Brown of Ohio, vacationing here, became a hero late yesterday afternoon Miss Alice Barden was overcome with a heart attack while bathing. The lieutenant governor who had just come from the water on seeing the girl going down rushed in and brought her to safety.

A PRETTY NOSE

It is always a misfortune when the nose is badly shaped, because comparatively little can be done to improve it. That little, of course, is important. In the east of the mouth or the eyes the expression much more important than the shape. In the case of the nose the shape which is almost always unalterable, is all important.

But the little that can be done is fortunately not difficult. Of course, I am not speaking of the operations which are performed to correct actual deformities, but only of the things which every woman herself can do. First of all the nose can be kept white, fine grained and clear.

If you have a red nose your digestion probably needs looking after and you will have to treat the affliction locally by rubbing and tapping the nose to scatter the congested blood. If you have blackheads you should steam the nose by holding hot wet cloths over it, and then use cleansing cream or better yet, the blackhead cleansing powder. A certain amount can be done in the way of keeping the skin fine and clear and white by massaging the nose from its top between the eyes to its tip.

During babyhood and childhood an enormous amount can be done by proper massage to change the shape of the nose. But when one is mature this is very much more difficult.

But even an ugly nose can be made to seem attractive if the hair is properly dressed. Experiment with different styles until you have found the one which most becomes your profile.

E. E. H.—Space here is too limited to publish the formula if you send a stamped addressed envelope it will be mailed to you. Olive oil is nourishing as a massage.

Red Head.—You should weigh 120 pounds. Drink plenty of milk and take three tablespoonsful of olive oil each day. It is best to include it in the meal and take it with the same quantity of grape juice.

Gladys.—Never shave or you will encourage a growth of hair like that on a man. Superfluous hair can be removed by the electric needle, or pulled out by tweezers.

Doris.—Consult an oculist about your eyes.

Jennie, N. E., Emily R.—Hair that breaks off or slinks to the head and looks dull, points to the fact that there is a deficiency in the nourishment. Massaging the scalp will help it as it increases the circulation. Hot, crude oil massaged into such a scalp, especially if there is a tendency to dandruff will be beneficial. This should be done the night before the usual shampoo. A formula for a good tonic will be mailed on receipt of a stamped addressed envelope.

ANOTHER CRUSADE.

This world will be a better place when peanuts are not sold; they are a menace to the race, they're causing grief untold, they bring us ruin and disgrace, and trouble manifold. Our children let their grammar slide, and leer at all it tells, refuse their teacher as a guide, although she's wearing bells, while sacks of peanuts they divide, and pelt her with the shells. I've organized a band of guys to fight the peanut curse, and shortly you will see us rise and put it in a hearse; and if you think the crusade wise, produce your ample purse. We cannot run this big crusade upon the modern plan, unless you promptly give us aid, and shell out all you can; dig up the roubles with a spade, and send them in a van. We can't alone by tongue or pen wipe out this glaring wrong, for evil will rise up again, unless our blow is strong; we need all kinds of iron men to help the work along. We have a high and noble aim, our purposes are broad, but we can't queer the peanut game and place it 'neath the sod, unless the reader, gen or dame, will send along a wad. We know not when we'll reach our goal—it may not be this year—but soon or late the bells will toll the peanut's doom, that's clear, if you will but produce your roll, and send a sample here.

HUNGER

There is a keener hunger than that of the body. And that is the hunger of the soul.

Most of us have had them both—and so understand each.

Sometime ago I read a very beautiful sentence. Here it is: "If I had but two loaves of bread, I would sell one of them and buy white Hyacinths to feel my soul."

Many of the greatest tasks of the world have been performed on empty stomachs—notably so in the fields of art, science and literature.

In like manner, some of the noblest conceptions of life arise from the hunger of the soul.

In loneliness and want are we sobered.

We crave while we lack.

It is comparatively easy to satisfy the ordinary physical hunger, but to the soul there seems to be an everlasting hunger. So much of the world hides "behind the dim unknown."

There are no laws within the kingdom of the soul. It is the only free place to be found anywhere. Or else how could the soul hope to crave out sufficiently its bursting reach?

We find ourselves where our purest affections are.

The running fingers playing across the strings of God's harp tell us that we may find in the music of the spirit the one thing which is able to soothe the restlessness of our physical frame.

How fortunate are they who hunger!

BASIL KING'S

Powerful Drama of the Unseen World.

Two men built their lives on this creed: "No God—no Sin—no Future Life!" It flung one headlong into the future he scoffed at. It put the other on trial for his life.

Then the murdered man came back from his world of shadows. Back to his wife and the woman who had invited him to sin.

Passion still held him to the scenes of his transgression. Even in death he could not escape. He was earth-bound!

How far away are the dead? Is the spirit held to earth by its desires?

Is there growth and progression—even after the shadowy barrier has been crossed?

Men and women, everywhere, stirred by intense personal feeling, have been asking—"Does the personality change with death? How long do the old interests go on?"

Basil King brings an intimate knowledge of men and women, of their wants and needs, to this great narrative. "Earthbound" deals with the emotional realities of men and women. It is a remarkable lifting of that veil which stands between this life and the next.

This production marks a new development in the art of telling stories through the motion picture. It is endowed with a power and human poignancy that can be found in no other form of art. No effort has been spared by the producer and the author to make "Earthbound" a story of great significance and great beauty.

The year that it has taken in creation began a new era for the screen.

DINNER STORIES

Well, had carried Mrs. Nurich into exalted circles, of which she had hardly dared even to dream. At a big dinner party she was being shown the glories of an aristocratic mansion by her title hostess, and as they passed along the corridor the latter lady paused before a marble bust.

"Oose that of?" asked Mrs. Nurich, with an air of great interest.

"That is Marcus Aurelius," replied her hostess.

"Oh! Is it?" exclaimed Mrs. Nurich. "But I wish you'd tell me, she went on confidently, 'whether it's the old marquis or the new one? I do get 'em mixed up so.'"

"I'm going to get a nice little wife. I'll have a cozy little home well cooked meals, my slipper ready for me when I get home at night, my pipe always handy to me and peace and contentment for the rest of my days."

"You never ought to marry."

"Why not?"

"When a man has a dream, he ought not to risk walking into Westminster. The corner-stone bears the date in Roman characters."

"MCMIV."

"Luke a' thot, Angus," said one. "Ah've never heard the name MCMIV before, but there's a Scotsman who's got his name on one of the finest buildings in London. Y' can't keep 'em down, can ye?"

A pretty girl at an evening party was bantering a genial bachelor on his reasons for remaining single.

"No-o, I never was exactly disappointed in love," he said. "I was what you might call discouraged."

You see, when I was very young I became enamoured of a young lady of my acquaintance. I was mortally afraid to tell her of my feeling, but at length I screwed up my courage to the proposing point. I said: 'Let's get married.' And she said: 'Why, who'd have us?'"

They were very young and very happy, and very foolish and very newly wed. And they had a garden.

"Angelica, darling," said the youthful husband, "as I was passing through the garden I saw some asparagus ready for cooking. Perhaps you'd like to go and gather the first fruit of the season yourself?"

She would love to, but she wasn't expert in horticulture and didn't want to let on. If she went alone she might commit some egregious blunder.

"I tell you what, Edwin," exclaimed the girl wife enthusiastically, "we'll go out together. You shall pluck and I will hold the ladder."

DINNER STORIES

A woman entered a London tram car with a crying youngster whom she could not quiet.

As the tram approached a stop,

the door opened suddenly and the noisy conductor called loudly:

"George's Cross! George's Cross!"

The mother looked up indignantly and replied, "So would you, be cross, sir, if you was cuttin' yer back teeth!"

In a small town up-state there was not one person who knew how to play the organ at the church.

At last a girl who could play just a few, and very few hymns at that, came to the town. One day, the preacher asked the organist: "Can you play a wedding march for a wedding tomorrow?"

The organist replied: "I am very sorry, but I do not know one note of a wedding march."

The preacher knew that they must have some kind of music for the wedding, so he said: "Play the nearest thing to a wedding march that you know."

As the bride and bridegroom came down the aisle, "Onward Christian Soldiers" was the tune that rolled forth from the organ.

THE PREACHER KNEW THAT THEY MUST HAVE SOME KIND OF MUSIC FOR THE WEDDING, SO HE SAID: "PLAY THE NEAREST THING TO A WEDDING MARCH THAT YOU KNOW."

AS THE BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM CAME DOWN THE AISLE, "ONWARD CHRISTIAN SOLDIERS" WAS THE TUNE THAT ROLLED FORTH FROM THE ORGAN.

NEW HOMEOPATHIC BUILDINGS NOW BEING CONSTRUCTED

Columbus, Aug. 11.—Additional facilities for the homeopathic medical college of Ohio State University provided in the gift made last year by Charles F. Kettering of Dayton rapidly are taking form.

The first of the buildings erected of which Mr. Kettering's gift makes possible is now under construction just west of the present Homeopathic Hospital Building. It will be known as the Kettering Homeopathic Research Building and will house the department of materia medica research. This department under the leadership of Professor A. E. Hinsdale, has attracted widespread attention through its new theories in treatment of burns.

The next building in the group to be erected will be the Kettering Homeopathic Medical Arts Building to be located between the Homeopathic Hospital and Neil Ave. It will be given over to medical and surgical clinical demonstrations and will have about 50 rooms in which especially selected patients, requiring unusual care in diagnosis and treatment, will be housed. An assembly room, fitted with motion picture apparatus also is to be a feature of the building. Here it is expected, lectures on health conservation will be given to the public.

The Homeopathic Hospital, one wing only of which has been completed, probably will be completed next year, as a large part of the money necessary has been pledged. When completed, it will have a capacity of 300 beds including the 50 in the Kettering Homeopathic Medical Arts Building.

Through the use of the "Old Dorm" and the "Barracks Hospital," together with the first unit of the hospital building proper, 120 beds now are available which now are seldom empty. Last year more than 6000 patients were treated at the hospital, one-third of whom were charity cases.

Last in the group of new buildings to be erected will be the Nurses Home and Training School, which will be located west of the Kettering Homeopathic Research Building, in Tenth Ave. The nurses' training school has been in operation seven years and provides for eight graduate nurses and 30 pupils. Eight young women were graduated from it last June.

SAYS VIOLATIONS OF ANTI-TRUST LAW OCCUR IN STATE

Columbus, August 11.—"It seems to me that strong evidence is in existence tending to show that the contractors and material men are organized in such a way as to agree upon prices and to restrain open competition, to the great detriment of the tax payers of Ohio," reads a letter sent to Attorney General Price by State Sen. Charles Brand, of Champaign County.

"Under the circumstances, I hereby request your department to make a thorough investigation of the operations of road contractors and material men in Ohio, to the end that, if the evidence warrants, proper proceedings may be brought by you to terminate any unlawful combinations, or agreements which may be violation of Ohio law," continues Senator Brand.

Attorney General Price stated that he will seriously consider the matter. He promised that prosecutions will be started if violation of the Valentine anti-trust act is found.

ERNEST WOLF AND DAUGHTER CURED OF HAY FEVER

Mrs. Wolf Thanks Kerker Company for Devising Marvellous Preparation.

After 30 years of suffering with hay fever, during which time he was forced to sit up night after night fighting for his breath, Ernest Wolf, 415 Gray street, secured his first permanent relief by taking Kerker's Asthma and Hay Fever preparation.

Mrs. Wolf, speaking for him and their young daughter, says:

"Kerker Medicine Company: I want you to know the great work your medicine did for my little daughter, Carlene, aged 7, and my husband Ernest Wolf, both of whom have suffered with hay fever. My husband had suffered for 30 years and was forced to sit up at night choking and affected with the stiffness common to the ailment. Your medicine has worked wonders for him."

"My little daughter, too, who has suffered for two years, has, I can confidently say been cured. I hope others may try your preparation and get the same marvellous benefits my family derived. You are to be thanked for devising such a preparation."

(Signed) MRS. ERNEST WOLF, 415 Gray street, Zanesville, O. Kerker's Asthma and Hay Fever preparation is sold in Xenia exclusively by Sayre & Hemphill.

A RED WING RHAPSODY

Yesterday was a Hard one at
The office
And I went home
At night all tired
And the wife was
In a bad mood
And the baby
Fretful
And the other
Youngsters fussy
So the family circle
Was anything but
Mirthful and merry
And the dinner wasn't
Just right
So we sent the kids
Round to the dealer's
And they got
Some RED WING
Ice Cream which Is cool and Tasteful
Soon we were
Laughing and joking
And happy
And wondering why
RED WING is not Advertised
"Good for grouches"
For it is.
Try it!
